Words From The Director

Dear ASIMPA Family,

ASIMPA is serving the Edmonton community by sharing South Asian music and educating hundreds of Edmontonians, from diverse ethnicities and races, and contributing to cultivating Edmonton's flourishing diverse arts community through teaching, performance, workshops, and music event organizing. We aim to promote, sustain, strengthen, and cultivate the music culture of South Asian heritage, pass its rich musical and cultural knowledge to newer generations, and connect its diaspora to maintain links to its ethnic roots, heritage, and homeland.

We would like to express our most deep-felt gratitude to all the students, parents, instructors, and staffs for being part of this journey. We are grateful for your unwavering and continuous support.

Warm Regards,
Dr. Subash Giri
Director

Fun Fact About Music

Did you know music can help plants grow faster?

Music For Culture Series (M4C)

ASIMPA believes that music can be a powerful tool to transmit culture to newer generation youth and children, and connect them to their ethnic roots. With the aim of passing our rich musical and cultural heritage through music to our newer generation, we began "Music for Culture (M4C)" project series in August 2025 with the Krishna Janmashthami celebration. This year, we kicked it off with celebration of Maha Shivratri on February 15, 2026. Our students, parents, and instructors gathered, rendered a series of melodic chants and rhythms, and shared cultural knowledge about Maha Shivratri and Lord Shiva.
